Volunteer Application

Volunteers with full time jobs will have to be flexible with their time as throughout their one year commitment will have to attend court hearings and “staffings” during business hours. Tasks may involve carrying children, walking up stairs, getting to the courthouse, using computers, etc.

Based on the description above, is there anything that could limit you from performing these required duties? _____

Are you able to attend CPS staffing and court appearances between 8:30am & 6:00 pm? _____

Can you see yourself visiting with a family in their home or with a child in a foster home? _____

How do you feel about working with a child and family from a different income bracket or culture? _____

How do you feel about working with a family whose values differ from your own? _____

Describe your temperament or personality: _____

What skills do you believe you will need to develop to succeed as a CASA volunteer? _____

Sometimes the “system” or the “bureaucracy” of the courts can be frustrating. It can move slowly, is not always scheduled at your convenience, and a CASA volunteer isn’t always wanted by the lawyers, social workers, the families and sometimes the child. How do you think you would react to this feeling of frustration and /or rejection?

Do you feel you fully realize the importance of the commitment you are making, not only to a young child, but in agreeing to stay with the program for at least one year?

What do you feel are the strengths and challenges that you will bring to this program? For example, background in counseling, legal, bilingual, etc.; challenges such as health, family obligations, limitations on hours available).

Strengths: _____

Challenges: _____

CRIMINAL BACKGROUND CHECK POLICY

Due to the nature of the CASA volunteer's responsibilities and contacts, a criminal background check of all applicants will be conducted through the Texas Department of Public Safety. Your information will also be processed with the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services to check for any history with Child Protective Services. Additionally, a fingerprint-based FBI records check will be conducted for applicants who have lived outside the state during the past five years in order to enhance the safety of children served by CASA.

Criminal Background Check Policy

Potential and existing members of the Board of Directors, staff, and volunteer advocates are required to cooperate with a complete criminal record investigation through the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services and any agency or entity CASA may utilize to assist in the investigation.
